Ayanokouji is placed in Class D, the lowest class in the school. The students in Class D are considered to be the failures of the school, and they are treated as such by the other classes. However, Ayanokouji is not what he seems. He is actually a highly intelligent and capable student who is hiding his true abilities.

As Ayanokouji navigates the treacherous waters of Class D, he begins to learn more about the school's dark side. He learns that the school is actually a breeding ground for future leaders, and that the students are constantly being tested and evaluated. Ayanokouji also learns that there is a secret society within the school that is manipulating the students for their own gain.
